

Marian College FIRE Carrier Covenant

Covenant

We recognise the special place and cultures of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples within Australia. We acknowledge that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have been the caretakers of this Land for more than 60,000 years. We respect their spiritual connection to Mother Earth through the Dreaming.

'An apology begins the healing process. Apology means understanding, a willingness to enter into the suffering. It implies a commitment to do more'.
The late Sir Ronald Wilson, Chair of the National Inquiry into the removal of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children from their families.

We understand that practical measures are needed to address the disadvantage experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in education, health, employment, and general opportunity.

'Reconciliation is an active pursuit – it's about getting on with what's needed and what we know to get the results we all want, and that's a mixture of measures that target the body, the mind and the spirit.'
Mick Dodson, Australian of the Year, National Press Club address, 17 February 2009.
True Reconciliation requires national and local solutions achieved through positive and purposeful partnerships not just for today but for tomorrow. We work for Reconciliation, in partnership with those who believe that there can be an alternative to the present order.

Covenants emphasize the ethos and faith belief of Catholic schools and the Social Justice response they are committed to make as part of their Catholic Identity. Schools' expressed commitment is reflected in practical goals and actions which they strive to achieve in the years ahead. School covenants express in ways specific to each school, recognition of the special contribution Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their cultures make to Australian society, their relationship and connection to the land, their present position of disadvantage and social exclusion. They declare the school and school community's commitment to stand in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to achieve true reconciliation and acknowledgement, of their rightful position within Australian society by all Australians. Our School

Our vision for reconciliation at Marian College is to be a place of learning and teaching that respects Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander protocols, histories and cultures. We will have strong and mutually beneficial relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. These relationships will provide for the sharing of knowledge and ideas, and the opportunity to listen and learn from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples about their past, their current circumstances, and their vision for the future. We will be a place where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures are respected and celebrated.

Our Covenant

Our covenant was originally developed by students & staff in consultation with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Team from Catholic Education Sandhurst. Our school community will be presented with ideas for Reconciliation in our local community by the Sandhurst Aboriginal Team, who were and are involved in the continuing development and review of our Covenant.
